OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

December 22, 2014

Dear friends and supporters of Living University,

This is final exam week at LU. Wednesday ends the semester and registration for second semester classes is now underway! Students have expressed excitement about their plans for the winter break, the Charlotte Family Weekend and the Kansas City Regional Family Weekend. Some are going to the North Carolina mountains to go skiing and others plan to spend their time with their families.

At the conclusion of the semester our students have taken the time to publish the second edition of our newsletter Illumination. We all hope you will find it informative and helpful. It should provide you with deeper insight into LU. I encourage you to consider the article "Dual Enrollment at Living University" on the back cover written by a teenager who has grown up in the Church.

As you can see experiencing true education at LU is a life-changing experience. Whether on-campus or studying at a distance our students are improving the quality of their lives and ensuring their future.

Please continue with us in asking God to bless our graduates, students and the University so we can remain in keeping with His will as we move forward. As this calendar year ends and we enter 2015 with its promise of many new and exciting challenges please remember LU in your prayers and thoughts. We appreciate and thank you as a member of our family of generous donors for your continuing support of God's University!

Your gifts, year in and year out, provide:

- Support to keep tuition costs low
- Excellent faculty and staff
- Scholarships, awards and work-study opportunity for students
- Library and classroom resources
- Computer-based resources
- Well-maintained campus facilities.

If you need additional return envelopes please let us know. Also you may make gifts online on the LU website. Simply go to www.livinguniv.com and select (click on) Giving to LU. Then click on the link Click here to begin the online gift process.

We hope you will have a productive, God-centered new year. Thank you again for your continuing generosity, interest and support.
